

Rochester Virtual Show – Wood Carving Explanations for Russell Scott

Mrs Pilgrim Angel 5.5 X 1.5 X 1.5

– I had my last simple angel cut out and decided to make the Mrs. Pilgrim Angel. It was around Thanksgiving time and, no one to my knowledge ever carved one.

Santa Playing Cello On Box 7.5 X 2.5 X 1.5

– Just felt like carving this one. The wood was too big for the Santa so instead of cutting the wood to size I enlarged the cello and put him on a box to reach it.

Victorian Olde World Santa Bust

– I carved this project on the International Association of Woodcarvers Zoom talks in late October last year and is still up with part 2 on my YouTube site.

How To Videos - Bunch 1 & Bunch 2

From Scott Carvings YouTube How To Videos

– These are the results from last year's YouTube videos – during COVID19 season. If anyone else wants to carve them, have fun.

Nissie Tomtie Blue Coat Light Painted 8 X 2 X 2

– This is my first attempt on a Nissie. The head got a bit big, but such as the caricature.

The Ladies - Female Caricatures

– Some practice pieces for Woman subjects. The cowgirl in the middle is a Ryan Olsen rough out. She was a regular lady, but I made her into a cowgirl and put a hat in her hand. Rosie the Riveter on the right got me a blue ribbon at the Minnesota State Fair two years ago.

The Scary Season

– These were fun Halloween projects; most are in my Halloween eBook at ScottCarvings.com

Tis the Tall Season

– I became inspired to carve tall figures after I finished Ryan Olsen's tall woman rough-out.

Santa Head Ornament 4 X 1.5 X 1.5

– Some Santa head ornaments inspired by one of Dave Stetson's visitation to the International Association of Woodcarvers Zoom talks.
